HOW A FIEND TURNED A SAVAGE BEAUTY INTO A HELPLESS VICTIM

All it took was a desperate man and an ambitious apartment wrestler. Together, they shocked apartment wrestling. Here is the sordid tale of drugs and torment, agony and averice, terror and defeat

THE ACCOUNTANT PICKED up page after page of figures and put them back in his briefcase. There was nothing more to say, so he got up and left Myles Richard sitting behind his expensive Chippendale desk. Richard was wondering how much money he could get for the desk.

Figures don't lie. Myles Richard, once called an entrepreneurial emperor by a leading newsweekly, now owed his creditors over $650,000. He couldn't even raise the money for an airplane ticket to Brazil, a destination his accountant thought might be more conducive to his health than a jail cell.

To make it to Brazil in the style to which Richard wished to remain accustomed, he needed $60,000. That would enable Myles to leave the country with a minimum of questions asked and enough left over to start bilking the credulous populace of Brazil.

It didn't take Richard long to figure where he could get the money. Discovering how took even less time. On the last phone call Richard would make from his majestic office, he purchased one capsule containing 500 milligrams of mexyltetrahydrelene.

Jacqueline, a curvatious brunette who has an impulsive need to dominate, has Magdelena moaning in agony before the match was minutes old. Jacqueline was forced to leave her home in Denver and look for work in Los Angeles as her ferocious wrestling style gained notoriety in the Colorado area.

Two nights earlier, all was in readiness. The most wealthy men of Los Angeles were gathering to witness an apartment wrestling match. What they didn't realize was the fortune being wagered on the battle's outcome. Richard had contacted them separately and hustled bets of up to $7500. All told, $63,000 would change hands before the evening ended. Every penny of it would go to Myles.

Richard had been able to get up to 4-1 odds on his choice. The favorite, for many reasons, was Jacqueline, a blazed brunette beauty renown for powerful brutality. Her torturous maneuvers made her feared throughout the sport. Originally from Denver, she migrated to Los Angeles because the competition there hadn't yet learned to fear her. The first opponent she battled has since left the sport.

Jacqueline is also famous for her will to win, the need to dominate. She will do anything to gain a victory. The tenderest zones of the female form have been mercilessly mauled by this ruthless vixen. Cries of anguish are common when she tortures an opponent. More than one lush beauty has been made grotesque by agony. There is nothing she wouldn't do to win. She is the amoral wrestler in the sport.

Richard, like any good con-man, knew his quarry. There was never any doubt she would participate in her own destruction. The following dialogue is a reconstruction of what was said when Jacqueline recounted the event [the reader should be warned there is no evidence, beside the woman's testimony, that she wasn't a willing accomplice in the scheme]:

Richard: I have something that will assure you victory.

Jacqueline: My body assures me victory.

Richard: Let's not be silly or pretend to scruples. We're both winners, willing to do anything to stay that way. Have you ever used any drugs?

Jacqueline: Not when I wrestle.

Richard: No time like the present to start. This is the same drug used by professional athletes to make them perform better. It's guaranteed to make you wrestle better than ever before.

Jacqueline: Why are you doing this for me?

Richard: Let's say I like to see winners win. Be sure you take it 30 minutes before the match. You'll feel slightly weakened but then a burst of energy will occur.

Jacqueline accepted the capsule. Although she assumed a victory over her opponent was a certainty, there wasn't any reason to take unnecessary chances. Most importantly, the thought of being a more vicious grappler thrilled Jacqueline. The possibilities flooded her imagination. Visions of conquest delighted her.

Of course, Jacqueline's foe knew nothing about this transaction. Magdelena, a lovely blonde from San Bernadino, was wrestling for the fourth time. Jacqueline would be the toughest opponent Magdelena had ever faced. The blonde knew a victory over her more famous opponent could put her in the front ranks of apartment wrestling. A slaughter would make her name known throughout the sport.

While the young ladies were preparing themselves in the bedrooms, and Jacqueline downed her pill, Richard sat confidently in a leather chair. Occasionally, one of the men who bet against him made a joke about how much his weakness for blondes would cost him. Myles just shrugged.

Jacqueline waited for the pill to take effect. Waves of energy had been promised to course through her exquisite body. The tingling should start at any moment. She yawned.

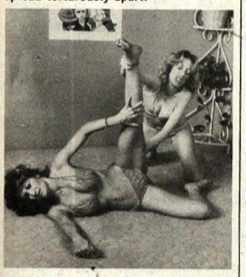
What Jacqueline had been given was a special tranquilizer. In larger doses, the drug is used to subdue hysterical patients. There was one instance of it being shot into the veins of a race horse. The horse never left the starting gate.

Naturally, Jacqueline suspected nothing as she entered the living room. She was a bit puzzled that the extra power hadn't come. It didn't bother her all that much. After all, the room radiated a lovely soft glow, all the spectators were her friends, and all was right with the world. She yawned again.

Seeing her lovely foe yawn infuriated Magdelena. The voluptuous blonde assumed her more experienced opponent was humiliating her in front of the onlookers. Magdelena's face revealed savage determination.

Above: Magdelena moans as she forces Jacqueline's legs into an unnatural position. Below: Weakened by the drug, Jacqueline is in agony as her legs are spread torturously apart.



Staring at the look of rage, the bettors feared for their money. Richard smiled happily. What the drug couldn't do, Magdelena would. Jacqueline yawned.

The drug's full effects wouldn't overcome Jacqueline for the first 10 minutes of the match. Richard didn't want to make it too obvious. When the match was signaled to begin, the brunette could still defend herself and mount a fairly competent attack. Myles smiled, knowing the losers would get a little action for their money. And

Apartment Wrestling Shocker

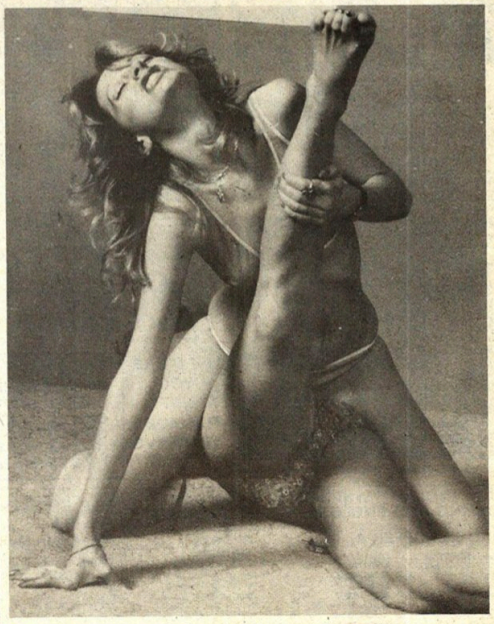
Magdelena learned quickly why Jacqueline enjoyed her fearsome reputation. As the blonde stalked forward, Jacqueline lashed her foot into Magdelena's belly. The victim let out a rasping gasp and doubled over.

In retrospect, one could see the effects of the drug working even then. It took Jacqueline just a few moments too long to spring on her opponent. Magdelena had time to recover. Instead of quickly finishing off her blonde victim, Jacqueline had a battle on her hands.

The two women tore into each other. Jacqueline managed to get an advantage, straddling her foe and forcing the woman to the carpet. Magdelena writhed beneath the brunette's weight as she tried to escape. Again, Jacqueline should have been able to end the battle here, pinioning Magdelena to the carpet. Yet, with a crude maneuver, the blonde's lush body heaved off her tormentor. Jacqueline sprawled across the room. For a moment, she just lay there, unable to command her body to move.



Leaning on her right arm for leverage and support, the sexy blonde yanks up on Jacqueline's right leg, sending cries of agony throughout the penthouse and chills down the spines of the onlookers. It was punishment such as this, along with the drug mexyltetrahydrelene, that finally caused Jacqueline to give up.

Panic filled Jacqueline's eyes. She realized the drug was not a pep pill of any kind. She'd been slipped a Mickey Finn. Unless she could win in the next few minutes, doom was the only conclusion. With a remarkable will, the woman rose to her feet and tried to vanquish her opponent and time.

Awkwardly, she flew into Magdelena. The blonde was caught by surprise and fell to the carpet. Jacqueline went to work. Limbs were twisted and mauled. With all her remaining strength, the brunette peppered blows into her victims breasts, belly, and thighs. Squeels escaped Magdelena's throat as she tried to roll out from under this fusilage.

Functioning with a clouded brain, Jacqueline worked on her foe's legs. If she could tear the muscles in Magdelena's alabaster thighs, the match would be over quickly. Grabbing the blonde's knees, Jacqueline pushed outward. Magdelena's legs went out in different directions and her body arched in agony. The end looked near. Richard went pale.

However, the drug proved stronger than the woman's will. She couldn't keep the hold on her foe for a long enough time. Magdelena broke the hold and rolled away. Jacqueline remained where she was, physically spent. If one looked into the brunette's eyes, they seemed to say, "Here comes the beating." Her eyes didn't lie.

When Magdelena recovered from her pain, she leapt at her foe. Jacqueline barely resisted. The drug was close to its peak. Torturous blows reigned down upon her. They were impossible to counter, barely able to be defended against. Slowly but surely, this once proud athlete was reduced to helpless victim.

Magdelena's face betrayed her wild delight at being victorious. There would be no mercy from this young lady. Her dream of conquest was being realized. Using the powerless woman before her, the blonde would make her reputation.

Magdelena began her offense by raining punches on Jacqueline's most vulnerable places. The brunette moaned quietly, unable to prevent the mauling. The moans were soon joined by gasps and piteous cries. The magnificent body, once feared by all opponents, writhed convulsively beneath the assault.

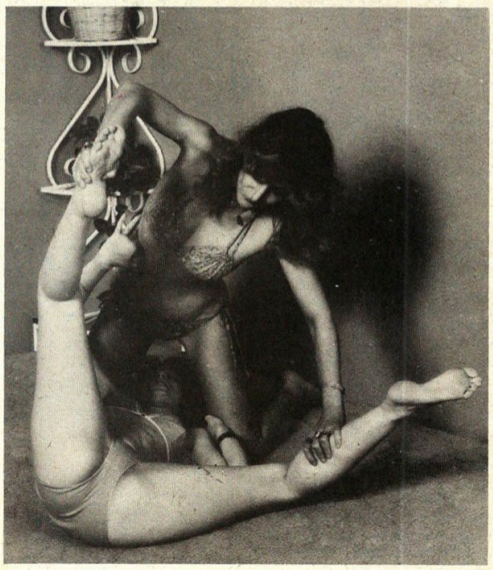
When Jacqueline was beaten so badly she could barely move, Magdelena leaped high in the air and smashed her foot into the brunette's lush breast. A howl of agony rent the quiet as Jacqueline's body again spasmodically jerked. Her beauty and power were of no assistance to her any longer. The splendid form was made grotesque by the torment.

Someone tried to stop the battle, but he was stopped by a vocal crowd. It comes as no surprise that these were the ones betting on Jacqueline. With a cruelty not reserved the wealthy, the losers were determined to make her pay in agony for betraying their faith. Richard didn't say a word. He just sat there, content with the inevitable.

Magdelena couldn't be stopped. She battered her opponent senseless, squeezing and punching and kicking. Sweat poured down the blonde's body as the attack continued at breakneck pace. Every



For once it is Jacqueline who has the upper hand. This was action from early in the match, moments after Jacqueline realized the pill she took was not a pep pill, but a Mickey Finn. Immediately she tore into Magdelena, hoping to rip her leg muscles, quickly ending the match, but the drug proved too much.

so often, Jacqueline managed to raise a hand or foot. These futile attempts at defense were swatted away with cruel disdain.

Finally, with Jacqueline lying still, Magdelena fell upon her foe. With some vestige of pride, the brunette writhed a bit beneath her conqueror's weight. Her body grinded pathetically for a few moments and then lay still. The match was over.

Magdelena leaped up, ecstatic in victory. Her sweating body seemed splendid as it relaxed in victory. Jacqueline had to be helped to the bedroom.

Richard went around and collected his winnings. He went right from the penthouse to Los Angeles International Airport. His flight left two hours later.

The full story didn't come out for another week. Obviously, Jacqueline wasn't too keen to admit she'd taken a drug to make her win. Declaiming her betrayal would also admit her attempt to cheat. However, pride forced her to reveal the plot.

As expected her inglorious defeat by Magdelena had made the blonde renown. The praise heaped upon a young woman not even in Jacqueline's class infuriated the brunette. When she'd heard more compliments directed at Magdelena than could be tolerated, Jacqueline revealed everything.

Immediately, the bettors tried to find Richard. It didn't take long for them to discover Myles was a continent away. There was nothing they could do but instruct their accountants to find a way to write off their losses.

Whether or not Jacqueline will ever again be allowed to wrestle remains to be seen. One doesn't have to guess at the make-up of the group demanding she be banned. Others, believing her incredible talent cannot be ignored, insist she get another chance. The outcome is still in doubt, although chances are she will be reinstated on probation.

Of course, her first match will be against Magdelena. There is a score to settle and a reputation to win back. It promises to be one hell of a brawl! □
